Students Named to First-Year Honor Society at Illinois Wesleyan

May 10, 2005

BLOOMINGTON, Ill.- Illinois Wesleyan University has inducted 147 students into Alpha Lambda Delta, a national honor society for first-year college students.

To be eligible for membership, students must be in the top 20 percent of their class and have a gpa of 3.5 or better on a 4.0 scale.

The mission of Alpha Lambda Delta is to encourage superior academic achievement, to promote intelligent living and a high standard of learning, and to assist students in recognizing and developing meaningful goals in society. By inviting first year college students to become members, the honor society aims to encourage academic excellence throughout the college career.
